Overview of Abbotsford, BC

Abbotsford is a thriving, vibrant community that combines absolutely breathtaking views with every modern amenity. While it was once primarily an agriculture base community it has grown to become a real City offering everything desirable from farming to big business. The City of Abbotsford is British Columbian's fifth largest City. It boasts a population estimate of 131,000 occupying a land mass of close to 90,000 acres. It is located just above the 49th parallel in an area known as the Fraser Valley.

Among the most prestigious addresses in Abbotsford lies a hidden gem known as Eagle Estates. Every corner surrounded by natural greenery, parks and walking trails. With unobstructed views spanning from the majestic Mt. Baker and sun bathed Fraser Valley to the snow capped North Shore Mountains.

Abbotsford is the fastest growing city in B.C. and offers a laid back lifestyle with a trendy urban feel. Only minutes from the US border, an hour from Vancouver and a short drive through scenic country roads leads to world renowned golf and ski resorts. Abbotsford's new seven thousand seat stadium, state of the art museum and ever expanding infrastructure makes Abbotsford's Eagle Estates the perfect investment to call home.
